SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CAL., SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1908.

NO. 23

INCORPORATION PETITION CAUSES STRONG ARGUMENT

Matter of Boundaries Will Be Settled by Supervisors at Next Meeting, on June 15th.

The South San Francisco incorporation matter took up the entire time of the Board of Supervisors at Redwood City last Tuesday.

It was thoroughly discussed by representatives from the local improvement club and attorneys for the Home Protective Association of San Mateo County.

The question opened with the reading of the objections of the Steiger Terra Cotta Company, the United Railroads and the Home Protective Association to the proposed incorporation. Henry Ward Brown, for the incorporationists, held that the association was of no avail, for the reason that none of the members of the organization lived within the proposed limits.

Samuel Knight, for the Home Protective Association, said: "I object on behalf of the interests I represent to the incorporation on account of the fact that it takes in all the available deep water frontage on the bay in the county. On account of the incorporation interests we object for the reason that we can see no benefit accruing to us from the incorporation. Disguise it as we may or say what can be said, one of the principal reasons for the proposed incorporation is the smelter. We are now forced to combat a movement that will mean the total abrogation of the present ordinance on smelters."

W. J. Martin replied to Attorney Knight, taking the broad ground that South San Francisco had outgrown its leading strings; that having a population of nearly three thousand people, it was of right entitled to local government; that the territory claimed in the petition had been an integral part of the industrial enterprise and town known as South San Francisco from the time of the town's foundation sixteen years ago; that the dismemberment of its territory would be an unexcusable proceeding; that its people did not need the guardianship of San Mateo, Burlingame or any other community or locality, and that the question of smelter and anti-smelter did not and should not enter into the matter of the right of our people to local self-government. That the city of Oakland had developed its water front; that the county of San Mateo had controlled this particular water front at San Bruno Point for more than fifty years, and had never done anything whatever towards its improvement; that the drylands as well as tidelands fronting deep water at this place were owned by the same interests that owned the town site of South San Francisco and by reason of such ownership the water front should be included in the proposed municipality of South San Francisco; that neither the Honorable Board of Supervisors nor the learned counsel who were opposing the incorporation of South San Francisco had any just reason to distrust a whole community as to its capability or integrity in carrying on local government either at water front or over the territory asked for.

Geo. C. Ross, as an attorney for the Home Protective Association, opposed incorporation. Henry Ward Brown made a strong presentation of the legal side of the question in favor of incorporation.

Harry E. Styles also touched on the legal aspect of the question in favor of incorporation.

Judge Cunningham took strong grounds in favor of incorporation, and his caustic remarks brought Attorney Knight to his feet, as well as Supervisor McBain.

E. I. Woodman addressed the Board in favor of the incorporation petition of South San Francisco.

In the afternoon the question was further argued by both sides, after which Supervisor Eikerenkotter moved, seconded by Supervisor Joseph Debenedetti, that the boundaries of the new town be made the same as asked for in the original petition with the exception of the districts known as Tan-

LOCAL HAPPENINGS TOLD IN BRIEF

Residents of South San Francisco are asked to furnish this office with any news items that they know of from time to time. There is a letter box attached to our front door, in which written items can be placed. Please write on one side of paper and sign your name to it. THE ENTERPRISE desires to print all the local happenings, and the people of South San Francisco can be of material help.

Many new residences are in course of construction in South San Francisco.

Manuel Silva leaves South San Francisco on Monday for Nevada.

Judd Smith, third baseman for the Los Angeles team, was a visitor the first of the week, the guest of Mrs. E. N. Brown.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing again. Paradoxical though it may seem, A. Ringue will be a party to the contract.

Thursday night the lights in the city seemed to be somewhat improved at times; at other times you could not see them at all.

E. N. Brown has received a thoroughbred English bulldog from Hanford. Mr. Brown is very proud of his new possession.

When the United Railroads extends its suburban service to this town it will grow in population very rapidly.

W. S. Money and A. Anderson, of the Western Meat Company, have gone to Portland, Oregon, where they will be temporarily employed at the company's packing house there.

Irwin Fox, of Burney Valley, Shasta County, where he teaches school, was a visitor to South San Francisco this week. He is a brother of Mrs. E. N. Brown.

Citizens of South San Francisco are urged to clean up all dry grass about their premises and burn it, so as to avoid the possibility of a serious conflagration.

A concert and lecture on Indian life was given at the school house on Grand Avenue Friday afternoon at three o'clock by Major Frank Rose, a veteran soldier of the Civil war and two Indian wars.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamsher, of Mound City, Missouri, will arrive here tomorrow morning for a three weeks' visit with C. F. Hamsher and wife. They arrived in the southern portion of the State Thursday and were met there by Mrs. C. F. Hamsher, who has been visiting in that section for the past three weeks. Mr. W. M. Hamsher is president of the Bank of Mound City, Missouri. This is the first visit of Mr. and Mrs. Hamsher to California. The two Hamsher families expect to visit the Yosemite Valley next week and other points of interest in this vicinity.

foran Park and the Fifth Addition to San Bruno Park.

Supervisor John McBain moved as an amendment that all that section to the east of the Southern Pacific tracks be also stricken out. The amendment received no second.

The original motion was lost sight of, and the Board finally determined to visit this town on Wednesday afternoon and look over the ground in the factory district as well as the hill slopes to the north.

Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the supervisors, accompanied by County Surveyor James B. Neuman and Attorneys Knight and Ross, representatives of the Home Protective Association, went over to the factory district and spent some time in inspecting that section, including the smelter site, as well as the hillside district to the north of town.

The supervisors will finally determine the boundary lines for the new town at the next meeting of the Board on June 15th.

SEVERAL CRIMINAL CASES DISPOSED OF BY JUDGE McSWEENEY

Theodor Kiprof, Who Killed Two Men, Held to Answer Before the Superior Court.

Several criminal cases came up before Judge McSweeney's court on Friday.

Theodore Kiprof, who shot and killed Peter Giorgi and Spiro Gioref in this town on May 11th, had his preliminary examination. He was represented by Attorney J. T. O'Keefe, of Redwood City.

It seems that Kiprof and others, who furnished the money for the purpose, held a partnership with Peter Giorgi, one of the dead men, in the French and German Bakery. Giorgi acted as manager and after a short time his partners were dissatisfied with the manner in which he conducted the business and finally Kiprof, on May 11th, went to the bakery and demanded a settlement. After quarreling for some time Kiprof shot and killed both Giorgi and Gioref. The shooting took place in the kitchen of the bakery and had no witnesses. Kiprof has been in the County Jail at Redwood City since the shooting.

Judge McSweeney held Kiprof to answer before the Superior Court on charges of murdering both Giorgi and Gioref.

Postoffice Burglars.

John McDonald, James Anderson and Frank Smith, alleged to have burglarized the local postoffice early in the morning of March 27th last, appeared and were held to answer before the Superior Court.

The accused men were represented by Attorney Eddy, the well-known politician.

Burglar Martini Held.

James Martini, who was caught in the act of burglarizing The Emporium store as Vista Grande Monday night, was brought here by Deputy Constable John Leslie last Tuesday for arraignment. He was taken to the County Jail by Patrolman Henry Kneese.

He appeared before Judge McSweeney yesterday and was held to answer before the Superior Court, with bail fixed at $5000.

UNIQUE ADDRESS AT ST. PAULS CHURCH

Rev. D. W. Calfee to Speak on Sunday.

The Reverend D. W. Calfee, M. A., was a resident of Arkansas during and just succeeding the War of the Rebellion, and underwent many thrilling, pathetic and humorous experiences during that period. This address was delivered before the San Francisco Methodist Ministers' Meeting a few weeks ago, and Mr. Calfee held their very close attention during the entire address. Rev. Edwin D. Kizer heard the address and immediately requested Mr. Calfee to consent to address his congregation at a service.

The address will be given at St. Pauls Methodist Church, on Sunday morning, June 7th, at 11 a. m. The subject will be "Reminiscences of After the War in Arkansas." Of course, no charge will be made to a public service of the church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. This remarkable sermon should be heard by as large a congregation as has ever been seated in St. Pauls Church. Let all come.

To Manufacturers

The earthquake did but little damage to South San Francisco. The industries located here, the Western Meat Company, the Wool Pullery, the Butler Brick Company, the Pacific Jupiter Steel Company, the Steiger Pottery Works, the W. P. Fuller White Lead Works, and other enterprises, are all in full operation to-day. Not one of them having suffered any serious impairment by reason of the earthquake.

The South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company planned South San Francisco as a manufacturing suburb of San Francisco. With that object in view they originally purchased 3500 acres of land in San Mateo county on the bay front five miles south of the City of San Francisco, and have developed their property so that to-day they possess perfected nearly every feature desired by manufacturers.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO

Is a railroad terminal; it is on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad and accessible to all railroads; has deep water communication; owns and operates for its industries, a railroad connecting with the Southern Pacific and the water front; has electric street car service from factory to town and direct to San Francisco; has an Electric Light and Power Company; owns an independent water works, and has an abundance of fresh water for factory and house; has wharves and docks; a perfect sewerage system; a bank; a town hall; and a population of 3000 people; an extensive and fine residence district, where workmen may secure land at reasonable prices and on favorable terms, as homes for themselves and their families.

FACTORY SITES

Can be obtained from the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company on most reasonable terms.

The American Smelting and Refining Company recently purchased from this Company 200 acres of land and are on the ground to-day arranging for the immediate construction of a plant costing upward of $5,000,000. This means a vast increase in population, and a great augmentation for the benefit of all industries of every detail pertaining to rail and water communication.

For Manufacturing Purposes South San Francisco Has No Equal on San Francisco Bay.

In an editorial upon farming methods the Electrical Review says that the advances made in transporting and manufacturing since the adaptation of electricity to motors should be repeated on the farm. Says the Review:

"It will be strange if before long the spirit of advance does not infuse a new life into farming methods. May we not expect that our newer power agencies will extend their influence to the work of the farm, relieving it of much of the drudgery that still exists and making the work attractive and pleasant as any other pursuit? When this comes about we may expect to see farming take on new life and flourish again in places where it has long languished. Deserted farms may then be reclaimed and a profitable field of work offered to many who now crowd into the manufacturing towns in search of a surer means of livelihood."

An instance is cited where a small waterfall on an abandoned mill site was harnessed and made to do the work of two horses and light the buildings on two farms. The total cost of installation was about equal to the value of two good horses, and the cost of running the plant is practically nothing. It requires but little expert knowledge to handle electricity, mysterious as this agent is. Many of the successful electricians of today knew nothing of the subject a few years ago. The knowledge of machinery required for a farm plant is possessed by the average farmer already. Given the power, which is simple and cheap if drawn from a stream, the application of it to the machine can be made by an amateur, and this being the case the farm should not be the last and least to profit by this wonderful agent. Capitalists are reaching out for the great waterfall energy of the country with a view to setting it to turning wheels. An idea that is good for them in a large way may be good for the agriculturist in a small way.

Manchuria proved to be the grave of military reputations as far as the Russian army was concerned. Stoessel, who came out as the "hero of Port Arthur," is in disgrace and will never command again. Kuropatkin is old and in poor health; but having failed to make a telling stroke against the Japanese, he would not in any event be trusted with high command again in case of war. Linevitch, the one leader of the conflict who held the confidence of his government and of the troops at the end, died recently at the age of seventy. Had he lived he would have taken the field as a leader, and Russia would have to trust her fortunes to new men.

PETERSON BROS.' COMPANY A SPLENDID ONE

The Petersen Bros.' vaudeville company which has been performing at Metropolitan Hall this week, is a splendid one.

Those who took part did their work in a painstaking manner and received great applause by the audiences. The encores were quite numerous.

The performances consist of comedy sketches, legerdemain, singing and dancing and moving pictures.

A change of program is given each evening.

Tonight, after the performance, the floor will be cleared for dancing, and all those who purchase tickets will be entitled to dance without additional charge.

The attendance has not been as large as the company deserves. Everybody should turn out tonight and fill the hall.

The company closes its engagement here Monday evening. The next engagement will be at Mountain View.

EXCURSION AND BASKET PICNIC

Peck & Garrett Have Chartered a Special Train to Bring Excursionists to South San Francisco on Sunday, June 14th.

Peck & Garrett, the enterprising real estate firm, who subdivided a portion of this town into what is known as Peck's lots, to the north of town, have chartered a special train to bring hundreds of excursionists here on the morning of Sunday, June 14th.

The train will leave the Third and Townsend Street depot at 11 a. m., and on arrival here those on the train will proceed to Peck's lots and have a basket picnic.

Peck & Garrett are making great improvements on their subdivisions and lots are selling rapidly. Residences are being erected. Broadway, the main avenue, is nearly graded, and it will not be long before that section will be a lively, bustling part of town.

South San Francisco has a very promising future and the firm of Peck & Garrett is an important factor in making it so.

BRIEF AND BREEZY

King Edward boarded a trolley car in Christiania recently, and an entire seat was cleared for his use. Over in this country we call people who spread themselves out over an entire seat ugly and more or less disrespectful names.

With Brown and Smith both running for governor in Crackerland, Ga., the populace, naturally, is hopelessly split, commoners and uncommoners.

"WHO'S TO WIN HIM?"

COUNTY CLERK NASH MARRIES MISS WIENKE

The wedding of Joseph H. Nash, County Clerk of San Mateo County, and Miss Lizzie M. Wienke, two of the county's well known young people, took place Tuesday at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wienke, at Moss Beach, this county. Only the immediate relatives of the couple were present and immediately after the wedding the couple left for San Francisco by the way of the coast route. The wedding journey will extend to Toronto, Canada, where Mr. Nash goes as a delegate to the supreme court of Foresters.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wienke, of Moss Beach. Mr. Wienke is the proprietor of Moss Beach, and a wealthy realty owner of the coast side. Mrs. Nash was a prominent school teacher of the county and has a wide circle of friends. No less popular is Mr. Nash. He is the son of J. C. Nash, who was, up to the time of his recent retirement, a member of the board of education for twenty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash will return in about six weeks and take up their home near Redwood City in a neat residence which has recently been built by Mr. Nash for his bride.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS.

The following salaries will be paid to postmasters in this county commencing July 1: Redwood City, $2,000; San Mateo, $2,400; South San Francisco $1,800; Burlingame, $1,400; Menlo Park, $1,300.

Charles Cavalli of La Honda, while celebrating his marriage anniversary last Tuesday, looked for a leak in his acetylene lighting plant with a lighted match. Cavalli's face and eyes were burned and he was taken to Redwood City for hospital treatment. Cavalli is a pioneer grocer of the La Honda section, where he has resided for many years.

C. E. Dunshee, newly elected treasurer of the recently formed city of Burlingame, was injured while alighting from an electric car at Bayswater avenue, Tuesday. The car started up before he had fully alighted and Dunshee was dragged forty feet on his left side. He was unconscious for five hours, but is showing improvement under the care of a physician and a trained nurse.

The climax of the fight for the principalship of the San Mateo union high school was reached at the meeting of the school board of trustees Wednesday afternoon, when F. G. Sanderson, the present principal, was retained for another term. At various times there has been friction between Sanderson and the pupils and their parents on account of the discipline used by Sanderson in order to maintain the school on a law abiding school basis.

Frank Auernstahl, a well known market man of San Mateo, Burlingame and Redwood City, died suddenly of heart trouble in San Francisco Tuesday night. Auernstahl was seated in a dining room chatting with friends when the fatal attack came on him, and almost immediately he expired. Auernstahl leaves a wife and a son Frank in San Mateo county. He was 50 years old.

George Armstrong, while engaged in breaking a fractious colt Tuesday evening near Wellesley Park, was thrown from his training cart and three of his ribs were broken, one of them puncturing his lung.

The body of a boy baby, a few hours old, was found on the beach at San Mateo on Friday. Coroner Plymire is making an investigation.

Mrs. R. A. Pescia, daughter of the late Miles D. Sweeney, founder of the Hibernia Bank in San Francisco was a visitor at Redwood City on Friday.

A man, supposed to be D. McDaniels, was struck by a southbound Southern Pacific train at Redwood City at 7:20 Tuesday evening. Beside having his head cut off he was shockingly mutilated. A letter addressed to D. McDaniels, 2029 Folsom street, San Francisco, written by Chris Hansen, at Pioneer, Kern County, this State, was the means of identification. The coroner's jury declared the killing a case of suicide.

FRATERNAL ORDERS

U. A. O. D.

The wheel that squeaks the loudest is the wheel that gets the grease. While this is a fact it does not always pan out, but White Eagle Circle, No. 56, has held many socials. The one conducted by them Monday evening in Lodge Hall, leads them all, the purpose for which it was held being to provide funds necessary to send representatives to the Grand Circle which convenes at Salinas the latter part of the month.

The evening's program was an enjoyable one, followed by dancing. Refreshments were served and many prizes were given away. Several useful articles were auctioned off.

Members of South City Aerie, No. 1473, were unable to meet on their usual meeting night this week, the hall being given over to others, which was a disappointment to those Eagles who had come some distance to attend the meeting. Next Wednesday the usual monthly initiation will take place. A large class of candidates, including W. J. Martin, will present themselves. A large attendance is requested.

I. O. R. M.

Tippecanoe Tribe, No. 111, Improved Order of Redmen, will conduct a class initiation Thursday next, and an interesting program and social time will follow the ceremony. It is hoped the members will be out in force.

THE HIPPOCRATIAN OATH.

What Every Conscientious Physician Undertakes to Do.

"First and last, day and night, he who has given himself to the cause of medicine sees the most sordid, the most terrifying, the most pitiful, side of humanity," says a writer in Appleton's Magazine. "His training is in the slums, where the elements of life may touch even the lowest and basest. His service is demanded in sickness and pain, and his final act, as irrevocably as the rising of the sun, is to close the eyes forever of others, even perhaps those whom he brought into the world. He is the possessor of secrets, the repository of sorrow.

"Into whatever house I enter I will go for the benefit of the sick. With purity and holiness I will pass my life and practice my art." So ran the oath administered by Hippocrates to his students almost five centuries before Christ, and so still stands today the physician's ideal. Medicine then partook of a character of holiness, for the student, too, swore to reckon him who taught me this art equally dear to me as my parents, to look upon his offspring in the same footing as my own brothers and to teach them this art if they shall wish it without fee or stipulation.

"Can any one today with an inkling of the life of the disciple of medicine doubt that the spirit of this ancient oath is rigidly observed in its practice, or that, as Hippocrates dictated 2,500 years ago, 'Whatever in connection with my professional practice or not in connection with it I see or hear in the life of men which ought not to be spoken abroad I will not divulge, as reckoning all that should be kept secret?'"

BUENOS AIRES.

An Orderly City In Which Affairs Are Well Conducted.

Things are done well in the City of Good Airs. There are good things to eat, comfortable rooms to live in, places where a man can get his exercise and outdoor sport. After the tropics the gringo feels like a man who has been hopping from foothold to foothold in a swamp and steps at last on solid ground. The creature comforts of a capable, wide awake, well arranged city soothingly envelop him. The cochero knows where he wants to go, the waiter knows what he wants to eat. The mounted policeman, in breastplate and horsetail helmet, rides him back with the rest of the crowd and does it so quietly and with such sophisticated nonchalance that he promptly conceives a passionate admiration for that policeman and his beautiful horse, falls into the communistic pride common to all city dwellers and is ready to declare that there is no other policeman so fine in the world. The streets are clean and well kept, and the buildings which line them, however gingerbreadly their architecture, are held within decorous maximum and minimum limits of height. Everything is near at hand. The hotel, club, bank, drive, the restaurants and theaters are all within, so to say, feeling distance. And this physical compactness and neatness, this continental glitter and activity, set here oasis-like, combine to give the whole a certain diminutiveness and cozy intimacy. There's a "little old Buenos Aires" too.—Arthur Ruhl in Scribner's Magazine.

Accomplices.

A rival to the celebrated Mrs. Malaprop is to be found in a certain New York street car conductor. The other day a party of several women boarded his car. They were not able to find seats together, and two sat on the opposite side from the others. The woman who paid the fares for the group offered the conductor a half dollar, neglecting to mention how many fares were to be taken from it.

"You're paying for these four here," he said, indicating those who sat in line with her of the purse, "and," waving his hand in the direction of the two on the opposite side, "are those ladies implicated?"—New York Times.

The Grave of Adam.

April 1 was marked on old calendars as the "Memorial of Adam." The orientals relate that Adam, when dying, charged his children to bury his body, embalmed with myrrh, incense and cassia, in the cave of Al-Kanuz, near paradise. When they quitted the place they were to convey his body to the center of the earth, whence would come salvation to his posterity. This is said to have been done by Noah and Melchizedek, who reburied him on the sacred hill of Calvary.—Chicago News.

His Only Chance.

"Why did you shake your fist at the speaker?"

"Well," replied the congressman, "I didn't want the whole session to slip by without my having made a motion of some kind."—Philadelphia Ledger.

An Exasperating Mamma.

The small boy's mother was the only one who sat unmoved, while the small boy himself—most unwelcome addition to the informal afternoon tea—gleefully galloped around the circular table, daintily spread with silver and china and towered over by a cut glass lamp.

"It's a squirrely pony!" shrilled the infant joyously as he tossed his flaxen locks and twinkled his besocked legs with ever increasing speed.

"Mercy! He'll have the lamp over!" shivered a nervous young woman as the human gyroscope stumbled over the edge of a rug, clawed at the table for support, then triumphantly continued circling. Conversation froze on pallid lips as they sat awaiting the inevitable crash. Only the voice of the small boy's mother rippled along serenely.

The nervous young woman could stand it no longer. In sheer despair she ventured, "Mrs. Archibald—er—pardon me—your dear little boy?"

The lady addressed stared blankly, then grasped the situation. "Malcolm," she said sweetly—"Malcolm, dear, run around in the opposite direction, darling. Miss Vinton's afraid you'll make yourself giddy."—Woman's Home Companion.

Making It Simple.

In the course of his sermon a preacher in a rural district used the world phenomenon. This word caused one of the members some trouble, for he was unable to attach any meaning to it. Finally he determined to seek an explanation from the minister and at the close of the service approached him on the subject.

"What did yer mean by that there long word yer used in yer sermon?" he began.

"Oh, I see you do not know what a phenomenon is," replied the minister. "Well, have you ever seen a cow grazing in a field in which thistles were growing?"

"Yes; many a time."

"That is not a phenomenon. And no doubt you have often listened to a lark singing merrily away up in the clouds."

"Yes."

"That, again, is not a phenomenon. But if you saw that cow sitting on a thistle singing like a lark that would be a phenomenon."—Liverpool Mercury.

Kadiak Island's Queer Climate.

Of the abnormal climate of Kadiak island, Alaska, a writer says: "In spite of its situation in such high latitudes we find here what may well be described as 'the parting of the ways' between the arctic and more temperate regions. For, thanks to the moderating influence of the Japanese current which flows along its southern coasts, Kadiak is favored with climatic conditions such as are unknown even in places a few miles north or east of it on the mainland of Alaska. So pronounced is the demarcation line that even on the island itself a traveler in summer will suddenly emerge from amid forests and vegetation of almost tropical luxuriance into a barren, desolate land of silence, where lofty snow capped mountains tower aloft, brooding, as it were, over the past terrors of an arctic winter, which will soon descend once more, enveloping them in its icy grip."

The English Channel.

One of the most famous bits of water in the world is the English channel, which separates and yet unites the sister countries of England and France and has been the scene of so much of their history. It extends on the English side from Land's End to Dover and on the French side from the island of Ushant to Calais. Its entrance from the German ocean is the strait of Dover, twenty-one miles wide, while at the other extremity, where it joins the Atlantic, it is 100 miles from shore to shore. The greatest width midway is 150 miles. Owing to the strong current setting in from the westward, the high winds which frequently prevail and the configuration of the shores it has a roughness which has become proverbial and few cross it without seasickness.

It Would Flatter Man.

Few men have deserved and few have won higher praise in an epitaph than the following, which was written by Lord Byron on the tomb of his dead Newfoundland:

"Near this spot are deposited the remains of one who possessed beauty without vanity, strength without insolence, courage without ferocity and all the virtues of man without his vices. This praise, which would be unmeaning flattery if inscribed over human ashes, is but a just tribute to the memory of Boatswain, a dog, who was born at Newfoundland May 3, 1803, and died at Newstead abbey Nov. 18, 1808."

DISEASE AND PAIN.

The Theory That Suffering Is Mental More Than Physical.

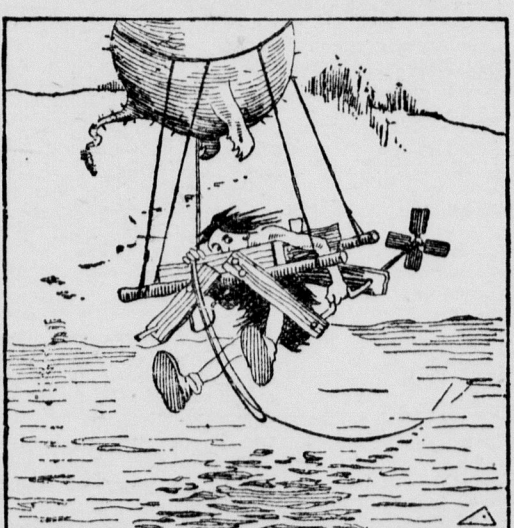

A great deal of alleged physical suffering is primarily mental. A great many people have "fixed ideas" of disease, pain, debility, fatigue, dread, inefficiency and unexpressible woes. Much often than we realize these can be transplanted without surgery or medication. I do not mean that they are not real sufferings. They are as real as the grave, but they are not grounded in physical infirmity, and they are not to be cured with physics. The mind becomes possessed of a conviction that a certain part of the body is infirm and imputes pain to that part in spite of all the medicine in the world. Hundreds of people refuse to get well after the physician has cured them. It is not his fault, and it is not their fault. But they have simply had disease suggested to them until they cannot think at all except upon that assumption. It is an "auto suggestion," or it is a family suggestion, and the only way to remove it is by the vigorous counter suggestion of another person. The value of a "fixed idea" of health, as being only the removal of a fixed idea of disease where there was no organic reason for it, will hardly be disputed. Yet one cannot overemphasize the multitudes that there are of these invalids sitting in padded chairs and making ready for the hearse whose trouble is primarily mental, and how many there are, again, who have a slight organic infirmity and have increased its effects a thousandfold by what we may call "household suggestion."—Max Eastman in Atlantic Monthly.

The Son's Answer.

After his son's great success with the "Dame aux Camellias" Alexandre Dumas wrote to him as though a stranger, congratulating him on the book and expressing a desire to make the author's acquaintance. "I myself am a literary man," said he in conclusion, "and you may have heard my name as the author of 'Monte Cristo.'"
 Dumas fils was equal to the occasion. He wrote immediately in reply, expressing the great pleasure he would have in making his correspondent's acquaintance, principally on account of the high terms in which he had always heard his father speak of the author of "Monte Cristo."

Before Going Elsewhere.

"Good morning, Mr. Highprice!" greeted the friend, entering Mr. Highprice's furniture store. "I saw your ad. in the newspaper saying that you would be pleased to have your friends call in on you before going elsewhere to buy, so I thought I'd call."
 "Very good!" returned the appreciative Mr. Highprice, rubbing his hands. "Now, what can I sell you?"
 "Nothing. I told you I was going elsewhere."—Pearson's.

A Forgetmenot.

Citiman—You ought to know something about flora and that sort of thing. Tell me, what is a "forgetmenot?"
 Subbubs—Why, it's a piece of string that your wife ties around your finger when you go in town on an errand.—Philadelphia Press.

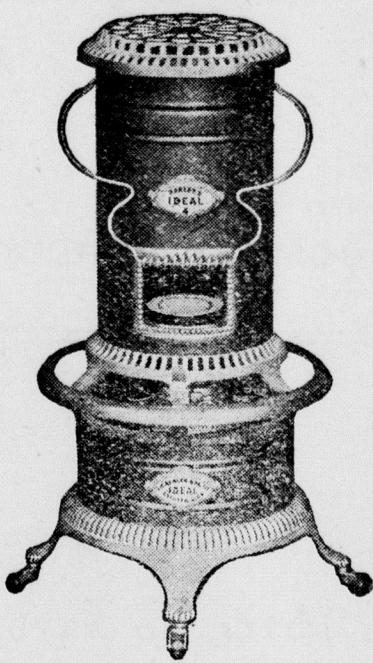

Conceded Fitness.

"This 'Gates Ajar' design is a handsome one," said the tombstone man.
 "It is just what I want," said the widow. "He never shut a door in all our married life without being told."—Indianapolis Journal.

"Well," said the cannibal chief as his followers brought in the lean but plucky explorer, "who in blazes ever said 'the bravest are the tenderest?'"—Princeton Tiger.

LYCEUM COMPANY WILL BE HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Mr. Norman Hall will present the Lyceum Stock Company next Tuesday evening, June 9th, in the screaming three-act farce "Captain Racket". It has been truthfully said of this play that there is a laugh in every line. The plot concerns a young man who is innocently drawn into all sorts of complications, and his wife is under the impression that he is a terrible man, and tries to secure a divorce. However, when it seems that all is in a hopeless tangle, the situation is happily cleared. Situation upon situation, each funnier than the other, follows each other in rapid succession. If you want a good laugh, do not miss this play.

There has been quite a little comment lately upon the support that this city is giving this really first-class organization, and one cannot understand why it should not receive the enthusiastic support that it deserves.

Manager Hall strives hard to please all classes and has sent some clever plays to this city, some of them being this season's successes. Miss Delmar, the beautiful southern girl, who made such a decided success in the last play, will assume the leading role in this play.

Mr. William McDougal, a new juvenile leading man, has a prominent part that suits him perfectly. He is a welcome addition to the company.

Most of the old favorites have congenial parts and are seen to advantage.

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN

From Sixteen-Mile House, Millbrae, on Saturday, May 30, 1908, one bay mare, 700 to 800 pounds, brand "O" on left hip. Unshod. Reward will be paid for return of same to R. CATTALINI, Millbrae, Cal.

A large assortment of men's Summer Underwear, 50 cents up at Schneider's.

PECK'S LOTS NOTES

P. C. O'Connor will build on his lot, 10-12, block E, next week.

The boom is on. Everybody work for South San Francisco.

There is going to be a jolly good time on Peck's lots on Sunday, June 14th.

The time has come for a reunion of everyone interested to get together and boost.

A nice basket lunch will be served and a pleasant outing will be assured everyone.

Every lot owner should bring his or her friends for the day. Give them a chance to see the great future of this town.

Randolph and Chapman streets are to be improved at once. The grading teams broke ground this week.

Broadway is nearly graded to San Bruno Road and as soon as the road is graded the street will be completed.

Contractor Harry Stark has just completed the Heim bungalow, and has begun the construction of three four-room cottages, one for Anton Handel and the other two for himself.

COLMA NOTES

The Jolly Sixteen Whist Club of Colma were entertained at the home of Elizabeth MacCullough, of San Francisco, Tuesday evening last. The parlors were beautifully decorated with flowers of all varieties, evergreens and smilax. The evening was joyfully spent with games and dancing, and singing and laughter prevailed throughout the evening. Refreshments were then served in the tastily decorated dining room. Upon leaving for home the members declared that they had had a lovely time.

BASEBALL.

The Langenbachs were defeated by the Burlingames Sunday before last by the score of 11 to 7. Sunday they will play Redwood on the Redwood diamond. Game will be called at 10 a.m. Batteries for South San Francisco will be T. J. Gerrity and Hen Berger of Redwood. A. Logue will be shifted to first and Burke to the field. Something seems to be worrying Johnny Meyers who plays center field, and it is up to Captain Gerrity to solve the mystery. As soon as the Langenbachs strike their gait, the word defeat will be a dead one. Watch us.

GIVE APPROVAL TO THE DANCE

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), June 1.—After a prolonged debate, the Indianapolis Protestant Ministers' Association went on record to-day as approving the teaching of dancing in the public schools. This action was taken in a double sense, for the association rejected a resolution offered by a Methodist minister declaring that the "modern dance is subtly against the highest and best development of the moral life of our young people during the formative years of adolescence," and expressing the conviction that dancing should not be permitted at high school functions.

The discussion was opened by a report from a committee of ministers who had visited the schools for the purpose of making investigations. The report favored the teaching of dancing and was adopted. Some of the ministers took strong grounds in favor of the exercise. Pastor Odell of the Second Presbyterian Church declared that it was all a matter of conscience and that there is no degradation in dancing.

"I have never seen anything more beautiful, charming and poetic than boys and girls dancing," he declared.

Suits cleaned, pressed and repaired at E. W. Langenbach's.
